Public Contract

Delivery of your items

Important: Our Postal Users' Guide forms part of this Public Contract. It contains the detailed specifications for each of our individual delivery services. It also sets out a number of terms and conditions that you must understand, and requirements that you must meet, before using our services.

The full text of the Postal Users' Guide is available online at nzpost.co.nz and copies are available in-store, together with explanatory brochures.

Our Service Offering & Commitments

We, New Zealand Post Limited, will use reasonable care and skill to deliver items that:

- are not Prohibited;
- are Restricted (subject to you meeting our specified conditions of carriage); and
- otherwise comply with the requirements set out in our Postal Users' Guide (including being correctly addressed), to addresses within our delivery network.

We agree to comply with:

- the terms, conditions and requirements of this Public Contract and our Postal Users' Guide.

We acknowledge that the limitations we set out below in relation to our liability for loss, damage, cost or compensation do not apply to any rights you may have under the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993.

Your Commitments & Acknowledgments

By using our services, you agree to:

- the terms and conditions of this Public Contract;
- comply with the requirements of our Postal Users' Guide;
- pay us the full price for our services.

You agree not to give us for delivery any item which:

- is illegal, explosive, dangerous or destructive to send;
- is not adequately packaged, or contains anything that is capable, as packed, of causing injury, or damage;
- contains currency, precious metal, traveller's cheques, deeds, negotiable instruments (including any bearer security, bill of exchange or uncrossed cheque), bonds or shares, credit or bank cards, vouchers, gift cards, tickets for games of chance or event tickets;
- is perishable or any other type of Prohibited item under our Postal Users' Guide; or
- is accompanied by any required documentation that is incomplete or inaccurate.

Unless you have complied with our specified conditions of carriage (and the item is not classified as prohibited for a particular service), you agree not to give us for delivery any item that is:

- fragile or Restricted (including any identity, travel, ownership or legal documentation, precious metal or stone, jewellery, watch, any collectable or antique or any painting, sculpture or other work of art); or
- above the content value restriction for the selected service.

If you give us for delivery any item referred to above, or in any other way you do not comply with our Postal Users' Guide:

- you understand that we and our employees and agents may not be liable to pay any compensation to you for any loss or damage to that item; and
- you agree to pay us for any resulting damage, loss, liability or costs we may incur.

Subject to the conditions set out in our Postal Users' Guide, the Postal Services Act 1998 and the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993, we limit our liability to you for loss of, or damage to, any item up to a maximum (including GST) of:

- either $250 or $2,000, depending on the chosen service plus reimbursement of postage if the item has been lost.

Higher caps may be available in specified circumstances. We have no liability to you for any letter (as set out in the Postal Services Act 1998), nor for any indirect or consequential loss, damage or cost, however it arises.

You acknowledge that all claims for compensation must comply with the terms of the Postal Users' Guide and that our delivery times are targets only.

You agree that, where you acquire goods or services from us for the purpose of your business, the provisions of the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993 which would otherwise apply to the supply by us of any of our goods or services to you, do not apply.

David Walsh
Chief Executive

Section 1: What Cannot Be Sent

- Not all items are suitable for sending by post or courier.
 - Some pose a risk to the safety and security of people and equipment and are therefore prohibited.
 - Others pose a risk if certain conditions are not met and are therefore restricted.
 - You must check your item is safe to send.
 - Not checking may increase your liability exposure.

Your Obligations

Use our services wisely

You must use our services wisely and exercise common sense.

No prohibited or restricted items

You must not post or courier a:

1. Prohibited item, or
2. Restricted item, where you have not met our specified conditions of carriage, unless, through an authorised NZ Post representative, we have specifically agreed in writing to provide this variation in service to you.

It is your responsibility

It is your responsibility to check whether an item is Prohibited or Restricted. What may appear harmless to you at first glance, may still be Prohibited or Restricted, for example, as a result of the law in New Zealand or the country of destination.

Importantly, acceptance of the item by us for sending does not free you of this responsibility.

If you are unsure, please contact our Customer Care Centre on 0800 501 501. They are always happy to help but, due to the complex nature of some products, it remains your responsibility to ensure your item is safe to send. If sending dangerous goods, ensure you check the International Air Transport Association (IATA) website at iata.org for more information.

Check export rules

The New Zealand Government prohibits or restricts the export of various types of items (such as prescription medication and antiquities). You must ensure that your item is not prohibited from export or that you meet any export restrictions on the item you are planning to send. For further information, contact the New Zealand Customs Service or the appropriate government authority.

Our Rights and Your Liability

Items may be opened and inspected

We may open and inspect any item we suspect may be, or may contain, a Prohibited item.

Prohibited items will not be delivered

If we find a Prohibited item it will not be delivered and we will not refund postage costs. We are not obliged to return the item to you but may, at our discretion and at your cost:

1. make the item safe;
2. return the item to you by an appropriate means including charging the actual costs or an administration fee for doing this;
3. destroy the item;
4. dispose of the item; or
5. deliver the item to the appropriate authorities.

Your liability exposure is increased

If you send a Prohibited item, or Restricted item (where you have not met our specified conditions of carriage):

1. we may hold you liable for any costs or damages incurred by us;
2. we may not cover you for any loss of, or damage to, the item;
3. you may be subject to penalties under the Postal Services Act 1998, the Civil Aviation Act 1990 and other legislation.

What is Prohibited? – Please read carefully every time you send an item

What is Restricted?

The terms High Risk items and Restricted items are both used currently in NZ Post collateral and on items such as postage included bags. For the purposes of these terms and conditions, they both have the same meaning.

Restricted items are items that can only be sent if you have complied with the conditions of carriage we specify in Table A below.

Table A: Conditions of carriage for Restricted items

You must comply with the conditions of carriage for each category that applies to your item.

Special packaging requirements for sending Lithium-ion (including Lithium-ion polymer) batteries:

- A maximum of 2 batteries, or 4 cells (single cell batteries), may be contained in equipment per parcel
- Each cell or battery must be under a certain power capacity rating:
 - Each Lithium-ion cell – maximum 20 Watt-hours
 - Each Lithium-ion battery – maximum 100 Watt-hours (Batteries for most consumer devices are likely to be under this limit eg. mobile phones, laptops, tablet computers, cameras etc. The Wh rating will be printed on the battery or may be stated in the device manual)
- The device must be switched off and packaged so that it can't move around or be accidentally activated during transport
- The device with battery must be in strong external packaging to withstand a 1.2m drop.

If sending within New Zealand, additional requirements are:

- If the device/equipment is being returned for repair, the battery must be removed and wrapped separately within the parcel if possible
- If the device/equipment is brand new and in the original packaging, send it as it was packed by the manufacturer
- If the device/equipment is used, leave the battery inside the device/equipment and ensure that it cannot be switched on
- There are no additional documentation or labelling requirements.

If sending overseas, additional requirements are:

- May only be sent overseas using Express service
- Lithium-ion batteries must be contained (installed) in equipment/device
- Lithium-ion Battery Document – International (ADV550) for Express service must be completed by the sender and included in the clear pouch with the consignment note. ADV550 – Lithium-ion Battery Document is available at any NZ Post store or visit nzpost.co.nz/prohibiteditems

Completing Documentation Fully and Accurately Labels, Forms and Declarations

All information provided to us must be complete and accurate.

If you are sending an item internationally, then you will be required to complete a form containing Customs and consignment information.

The type of form will depend on the item's weight and/or the value of its contents, and on whether you are sending the item as a consumer or a business. In store, small green Customs declaration forms and larger, white consignment notes are available for use.

We Rely on the Contents and Value Disclosures you Make

You acknowledge that we will rely on the information you provide us for safety purposes and for valuation purposes if your item is damaged or lost in transit.

You may not list an item and value for Customs, consignment and/or postage purposes, and then claim a different item or higher value from us.

Providing incomplete and/or inaccurate information may reduce your chances of a successful claim if your item is damaged or lost in transit; and may constitute a criminal offence subject to fines and penalties.

How Do I Package my Item?

The general handling and transport processes are the same for all items

As such, we cannot provide any special treatment for items that are:

- fragile;
- affected by changes in temperature (for example, certain types of chocolate);
- simply inadequately packaged.

It is not sufficient to affix labels such as 'fragile' or 'handle with care' to your item.

Your responsibility

By accepting your item, we do not acknowledge that your packaging is sufficient to ensure the item is delivered undamaged.

Wrap to allow for a 1.2m drop

It is your responsibility to ensure that any item is well packaged and can withstand a 1.2 metre drop.

Use common sense, and wrap your items well. Account for the fact that they may be dropped, including on an angle, have items dropped on them, be nudged, placed sideways and/or upside down. Pay particular attention to cushion the corners and consider whether your items would be best protected by the use of an inside and outside container.

For more specific hints and tips on packaging, visit nzpost.co.nz

Sending bees within New Zealand

- Must be sent using our Courier service for next working day delivery
- Any parcels sent on Friday should be upgraded for Saturday Delivery subject to Saturday delivery availability to the receiving address
- Please ensure that you check if the receiving address is Rural, as these addresses may take longer to deliver to.

Packaging guidelines:

- Live bees should be enclosed in suitable packaging to remove all risk of injury to anyone in contact with the item
- Ventilation should be robust and ensure all contents are contained within the parcel, but provide adequate circulation
- Where food supply is necessary, it should be of "hard candy" type substitute, such that it will not leak from the parcel
- Each item must be clearly marked "Live bees" (or similar) so that it can be easily identified. Please ensure the NZ Post store staff or Courier are aware of the contents when the parcel is lodged or collected
- It is acceptable to send bees domestically using the NZ Post packaging range (using the Courier service) provided the bees are contained within the appropriate 'cages' (or other similar strong protective containers) with small holes punched in the bag for ventilation.

Sending honey and bee products overseas

Honey or bee products can be sent overseas only if they meet the following criteria outlined here:

- The sender of the honey or bee products must be a registered exporter, or the product is being shipped on behalf of a registered exporter.
- The parcel must be labelled with the exporter ID, exporter address, and either product ID and batch number, or transfer document number.
- Honey or bee products must be addressed to a private individual (not a company).
- The maximum weight limit of any shipment including honey or bee products is 2kg (inclusive of the packaging and any other items in the package).

Note: Consumers are unable to send honey as a gift overseas unless they are a registered exporter. These regulations are set by the Ministry for Primary Industries (MPI).

Section 2: Cover for Loss or Damage

- Unfortunately, some items do get delayed, damaged or lost in transit.
 - You may be entitled to a repair, a replacement or compensation if your item is damaged or lost.
 - Subject to any applicable legislation, the amount of any compensation payable will depend on our terms, the loss you incurred and any contributing role you played.
 - The description and value of items disclosed for Customs, consignment and/or postage purposes must be accurate, and will be taken in account when determining if compensation for loss or damage is payable.

Applicable Legislation

Consumers

If you are acquiring postal or courier services from us as a consumer, it is important that you understand that any rights you may have, or obligations we may have to you, under the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993 and the Fair Trading Act 1986 apply alongside the terms of the Public Contract and this Postal Users' Guide, and are not impacted by anything in this Section 2, but are subject to the terms of the Postal Services Act 1998 and the carriage of goods provisions of the Contract and Commercial Law Act 2017.

Businesses

If you are acquiring postal or courier services from us as a business as defined in the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993 you agree that, to the maximum extent permitted by law, the provisions of that Act do not apply to those postal or courier services.

Delay

Our delivery times are targets only – some items may take longer to be delivered. No compensation is payable for delays. Once a reasonable period for delivery has passed, and in the absence of any information on where an item is, we may determine the item to be lost and a claim for loss may be made.

Repair, Replacement, Compensation Payment

If you purchase a postal or courier service from us and your item is lost or damaged in transit, if we are liable we may elect to repair or replace the item or to pay you an amount:

1. equal to the replacement value of the item;
2. equal to the cost of repair of the item;
3. up to the sum of cover available under the service you purchased (see below, and subject to any of the cover dependencies set out below)

whichever is the lesser, together with a refund of the postage paid if the item was lost.

Cover Dependencies

The amount of cover available to you as a sender if your item is lost or damaged in transit (if any) will depend on:

1. the service you purchased;
2. whether you sent a Prohibited item; or a Restricted item without complying with our specified conditions of carriage;
3. whether:
 - (a.) the loss or damage is the result of an event beyond our reasonable control;
 - (b.) the item is seized or confiscated by Customs or any other government agency or border control authority, regardless of whether it is a Prohibited or Restricted item or not;
 - (c.) the loss or damage occurred after delivery;
4. what you disclosed as the value on the Customs declaration form or consignment note, when sending internationally;
5. whether the item was new or second-hand (for example, cover for second hand goods that have been sold online (e.g. through online auction sites) is based on the sale price of the item);
6. whether you are a consumer or a business as defined by the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993, and/or whether you have a NZ Post Account (for example, cover for business customers (regardless of whether you have a NZ Post Account) who have sold an item is based on the lower of cost price of the item to the sender, and the retail price of the item);
7. whether your actions contributed to the item going missing or being damaged or you did not mitigate your loss, including by:
 - (a.) not correctly addressing the item;
 - (b.) sending a Prohibited item; or a Restricted item without complying with our specified conditions of carriage;
 - (c.) choosing an inappropriate service (for example, one where you have exceeded the contents value restriction – noting that this would have made your item a Prohibited item);
 - (d.) not completing any required documentation fully and accurately when sending the item;
 - (e.) not packaging the item adequately;
 - (f.) giving us an item for delivery to a country where no postal or courier service exists;
 - (g.) not complying with any other relevant part of the Public Contract and Postal Users' Guide;
8. the type of loss or damage incurred – we are not liable to you for any indirect or consequential loss, or for any loss of profits, revenue, goodwill, business or anticipated business or anticipated profits or savings; and
9. whether you are able to prove the sending of the item and its loss or damage.

Please note that no cover will be available if you send a Prohibited item; if you send a Restricted item without complying with our specified conditions of carriage; if the circumstances described in 3(a)-(c) above occur; if you send the item as a 'letter' (as defined in the Postal Services Act); or if you cannot prove the sending of an item or its loss or damage.

Cover Limits

The following are the cover limits for sending within New Zealand and internationally.

It is important that you understand that these limits are subject to the dependencies listed above – if your item is lost or damaged in transit, you do not automatically have access to the cover limit for the service you purchased.

Lodging an Enquiry or Making a Claim

Checks you can make first

If your postal or courier item has not arrived as expected, there are a number of things you can check before you contact us:

1. our delivery targets, to see when the item should have been expected;
2. if the item was sent using a service that has tracking, use our online tracking tool to check its status;
3. contact the recipient, check that you correctly addressed the item, that no card to call has been left or that someone else at the address has accepted the item.

Who can lodge an enquiry or make a claim

The purchaser of the postal or courier service (that is, the sender) must lodge the enquiry or claim with us. If you are the intended recipient of an item, and something is amiss, please contact the sender and have them raise the matter with us.

How to lodge an enquiry or make a claim

For all domestic and international services:

1. complete the Customer Enquiry Form online at nzpost.co.nz or
2. call the Customer Care Centre on 0800 501 501.

Timeframes for lodging an enquiry for loss or damage

Subject to the application of the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993, an enquiry must be lodged for loss or damage within:

- 10 days of delivery if your claim is for damage to a delivered item or missing contents;
- 21 days of sending if your claim is for non delivery of an item sent using a domestic postal or courier service;
- 30 days of sending if your claim is for non delivery of an item sent using an international courier service; or
- 90 days of sending if your claim is for non delivery of an item sent using an international postal service.

Requirements for making a claim for loss or damage

Once we have investigated your enquiry and requested a completed claim form for loss of, or damage to, a postal or courier item, you must provide us with all relevant information to enable us to consider compensation within 6 months after we sent you the claim form. The information you provide must be accurate and must include the following:

- time, date and place of sending
- sender and addressee details
- whether you are a business or a consumer (as defined by the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993) and whether you have a NZ Post Account

- proof of posting (receipts or invoices)
- independent evidence of value of the item (cost price, replacement price, receipts or valuation notice, all as applicable)
- tracking number (where applicable)
- sender's copy of the Consignment Note or Customs Declaration (where applicable);
- GST number (where applicable)
- Evidence of loss and any damage – if the item is damaged or some of the contents are missing, complete a damaged item enquiry form on our website nzpost.co.nz/parcels-assistance within 10 days of receiving your item. If you have sent an item overseas, the person who received the item with damaged or missing contents should take it to the postal authority in their country.

Processing times

We individually investigate each enquiry and claim. Because of this, resolution of your case may not be immediate and some international investigations may take several months to complete. For domestic matters, please expect one to two weeks to pass from your initial interaction with us before we make contact again, and longer if the issue is complex.

Claim Payments

Please note:

1. We usually pay compensation to the sender, but the sender can waive this right in favour of the addressee. An addressee will receive the same amount of compensation as we would have paid to the sender if the sender had made the claim themselves
2. Payments are made via internet banking and will be made in accordance with our payments cycles – usually on a Friday evening
3. If compensation for damage to an item has been paid in full, then we may dispose of the damaged item as we choose
4. If we pay you compensation in full for a lost item and the item later turns up, the item will be our property. If you want to have the item returned to you, you must refund the compensation payment you received in full.

Section 3: Delivery and collection of mail

Unless otherwise stated in the terms and conditions of a specific service, we deliver to an address not the addressee.

Mailbox delivery

To help ensure your mail is delivered safely, securely and efficiently, you must:

- have your street number and, where applicable, flat or apartment number, clearly visible on your mailbox; and
- position your mailbox on the street line, close to the footpath, on the nearest flat area, with the mail slot facing forward and within safe and easy reach; and
- maintain safe and clear access to your mailbox, with no shrubbery or obstacles in the way; and
- maintain safe access to your mailbox by removing any spring loaded flaps and rusty or sharp edges; and
- position your mailbox so the mail slot is between 900mm and 1200mm from the ground.

The recommended minimum dimensions for a mailbox are:

- mail compartment: 270mm wide, 330mm deep, 160mm high
- mail slot: 250mm wide, 30mm high.

This will help to ensure that your mailbox is large enough to hold all the mail that you receive and that your mail drops into the box out of sight of the street. If you receive parcels, you should consider having a separate parcel area in your mailbox. If you receive large amounts of mail, we recommend your mailbox is large enough to fit it. Ideally, your mailbox will also have a separate area for newspapers and other non-mail items.

If the item does not fit in your mailbox, it will be left at the front door in a weatherproof and secure location, out of public view. If no such location is available, a Card to Collect or Card to Call will be left, advising where the item can be collected from.

Further details about mailbox specifications are available on our website nzpost.co.nz

Public rights of way/private roads

We will deliver mail to mailboxes on a public right of way or private road if there are five or more mailboxes on that right of way and the road is of sufficient standard to deliver mail safely.

All other criteria for mailboxes outlined above apply.

Flats and apartment blocks – where mailboxes are located outside

Groups of mailboxes must be at right angles to the footpath or roadway.

All other criteria for mailboxes outlined above apply.

Flats and apartment blocks – where mailboxes are located inside

Delivery of mail inside apartment blocks is available when there are five or more apartments. The mailboxes must be locked, on the ground floor and in a common entrance.

All other criteria for mailboxes outlined above apply.

Business premises

We will deliver mail into business premises if a locked mailbox or letter slot is provided on the ground floor and in a common entrance, or if a reception desk or shop counter suitable for holding mail is close to the main entrance. We will not deliver mail above the ground floor.

Note that the delivery service actually provided to you may vary slightly depending on local circumstances.

If a delivery point is not provided, the addressee will be notified and the items will be held at the delivery branch or NZ Post store for collection – see Counter delivery overleaf.

Non-signature required items

If no-one is home, the courier item will be left in a weatherproof and safe location, out of public view. If no such location is available, a Card to Call or Card to Collect will be left, advising where the item can be collected from.

Signature required items

If no-one is home, a Card to Collect or Card to Call will be left, advising how to get the item. However, if the address has an authority to leave in place, the delivery person will sign for the item and leave it in the place stated in the Authority to Leave form for that address.

Call our Customer Care Centre on 0800 501 501 for details about authority to leave arrangements, exceptions and the terms and conditions that apply.

Safety

We may, at our discretion, determine that the access provided to your address is not safe for us and refuse to deliver mail until the issues we identify are resolved to our satisfaction. This applies to both public and private roads.

If a safe and accessible mailbox is not provided, the addressee will be notified and the items will be held at the delivery branch or NZ Post store for collection – see Counter delivery below.

Potholes, blind corners, narrow roads, excessive vegetation, verbal or physical abuse of our staff or other staff safety concerns are examples of conditions that may make a road or address unsafe for delivery.

Rural delivery

Rural delivery is not available in all areas and not automatic. You must apply for rural delivery by filling in a Rural Delivery Service Agreement, which also sets out the terms and conditions applying to this service. The Rural Delivery Service Agreement is available from your local NZ Post store.

Mailbox specifications for Rural Delivery differ from the urban mailbox specifications outlined above. The recommended minimum dimensions for a rural mailbox are:

- mail compartment: 270mm wide, 400mm deep, 270mm high
- mail slot: 250mm wide, 30mm high.

For full details, refer to our website nzpost.co.nz or the brochure Joining and using Rural Post's services (ADV034)

Counter delivery

You may arrange for items sent via our postal network to be held at a NZ Post store for collection. Items addressed only to a town are treated as addressed for Counter delivery.

Counter delivery is a short term delivery option and will only be provided to you for a maximum period of 3 months. We may refuse or terminate Counter delivery if other delivery services, such as urban delivery, Rural delivery or PO Box/Private Bag delivery, are available to you. We may also terminate the Counter delivery service by giving you 30 days' notice.

Counter delivery items will be held for 30 days before being returned to sender unless:

- the sender has requested a shorter period of time;
- the item is a domestic Economy item – these items are returned to sender after 14 days; or
- you have been receiving the Counter delivery service for longer than 3 months or we have given you notice that the service is being terminated and that notice period has expired – these items will be immediately returned to sender.

You must present suitable identification when collecting items over the counter.

ParcelPod

Refer to nzpost.co.nz/parcelpod or contact our Customer Care Centre on 0800 501 501 for details about our ParcelPod parcel delivery service and the terms and conditions that apply.

Collect my Parcel

Refer to nzpost.co.nz/collectmyparcel or contact our Customer Care Centre on 0800 501 501 for details about our Collect my Parcel delivery service and that terms and conditions that apply.

Redirection and Hold services

Ask at your local NZ Post store or contact our Customer Care Centre on 0800 501 501 for details about these services and the terms and conditions that apply.

Redirect mail – nzpost.co.nz/personal/receiving-mail/redirect-mail

Hold mail – nzpost.co.nz/personal/receiving-mail/hold-mail

Poste Restante

If you are an overseas visitor you may arrange for items addressed to you to be held at selected NZ Post stores for collection (refer to our website at nzpost.co.nz/posterestante for a list of stores where the Poste Restante service is available). Poste Restante mail is held for two months before being returned to sender.

The Poste Restante service allows you to:

- receive mail and parcels
- leave messages for people you wish to contact
- redirect mail within New Zealand (mail cannot be redirected to a hotel, motel, motor camp, hostel or boarding house).

Mail addressed to a Poste Restante location must include:

- the addressee's full name
- the words "Poste Restante"
- the town or city of the Poste Restante location
- the words "New Zealand"
- a return address.

Fees apply to Poste Restante services. For details, refer to our website at nzpost.co.nz/posterestante, ask at a NZ Post store that accepts Poste Restante mail or contact our Customer Care Centre on 0800 501 501. Parcels held at Poste Restante must have maximum dimensions no larger than those allowed for the Economy service: length 1.5m, length + girth 2.5m, volume (length (m) x thickness (m) x height (m)) 0.125m³. The maximum weight for this service is 25kg actual or volumetric weight, whichever is greater.

You must present suitable identification when collecting Poste Restante items.

Mail in dispute

If there is a dispute between parties as to who is entitled to receive an item, we may refuse to deliver the item. If the parties cannot agree on who is entitled to the item, it will be treated as undeliverable and returned to sender.

Mail for deceased persons

Mail will be delivered as addressed until we are instructed otherwise. Mail can be redirected to the administrator of the estate. Mail may be redirected to a relative of the deceased provided:

- they have authority to accept mail items on behalf of the deceased; and
- other relatives do not object to them receiving the deceased's mail.

We may require the person receiving the mail to indemnify us against any claims that result from the redirection of the deceased's mail to them.

Bankrupts, companies in receivership or liquidation

Items addressed to a bankrupt, or a company in receivership or liquidation, will be delivered to the addressee. Items will only be redirected to the duly appointed official assignee, receiver or liquidator (evidence of appointment may be requested) if a redirection request is completed in accordance with our usual terms and conditions for the redirection service.

Undeliverable items

Items sent within New Zealand that we cannot deliver and that have a sender's address will be returned to sender.

Items sent within New Zealand that we cannot deliver and which do not have a sender's address will be sent to NZ Post's Returned Letter Office and will be dealt with in accordance with the Postal Services Act 1998.

Letters (including postcards) and parcels under 2kg from overseas that we cannot deliver will be returned to the country they were sent from. Registered items will always be returned to the country they were sent from.

Parcels (insured or over 2kg) or courier items from overseas that we cannot deliver will be dealt with in accordance with the instructions on the Customs Declaration or Consignment Note.

Printed papers will only be returned to the country they were sent from if specifically requested by the sender. This must be marked on the item in the language of the destination country.

Postage

We do not repurchase postage stamps or other prepaid postage (e.g. tickets, bags, envelopes).

We do not accept:

- postage that isn't valid for our network;
- postage that has already been used (whether it has been postmarked or not);
- postage that is imperfect (i.e. defaced, incomplete or cut);
- postage that is issued by other countries, including New Zealand dependencies;
- postage that is not on the outside of the mail item (e.g. is placed under shrink wrap or flow wrap)
- postage stamps that are imprinted stamps cut from a bill, note form, share transfer or stamp duty cheques;
- postage stamps as a method of payment for Economy parcels, or Courier (including Courier Economy, and Signature upgrades) parcels;
- any item that has any non-postal stamp or charity or other label, as well as designs likely to be mistaken for postage stamps or service labels, affixed or printed on the address side.

Short Paid items

If an item does not have enough postage for delivery, we are not obliged to deliver it. We may, at our discretion, return the item to the sender, delay it, or deliver it.

If we deliver the item, we may charge a handling fee in addition to the postage owing. If we return the item to the sender, then we will not refund the postage previously paid, and full postage may need to be re-applied to resend the item. If there is no return address, the item may be treated as undeliverable and sent to NZ Post's Returned Letter Office, to be opened in order to identify the sender, and/or destroyed or otherwise disposed of, in accordance with the Postal Services Act 1998.

Cancellation of stamps

Cancellation of philatelic items may be done over the counter at selected NZ Post stores. This Philatelic service is only allowed for NZ Post products. Postage payment options not originating from NZ Post do not qualify for this service offering, even though they may be using the NZ Post network for delivery. The items will be handed back to you without going through the normal mail system. Under no circumstances will we alter date stamps to accommodate a request for cancellation.

Working days

The terms and conditions for our services refer to delivery targets in working days. A working day means any day other than a Saturday, Sunday, or public holiday recognised in the place where services are being performed.

For the purposes of delivery targets, the day in which the item is accepted by us is day zero. If you post an item, or hand it over the counter in a NZ Post store after that day's final clearance, or on Saturday or Sunday or public holiday, day zero will be the next working day.

Data sharing

The information contained within any Customs documentation produced, including sender and recipient details, may be shared electronically with the country of destination to facilitate Customs/Security clearances in line with national and international legislation. For more information, see the privacy statement on our website nzpost.co.nz/about-us/who-we-are/terms-of-business/website-terms-conditions

Product requirements

All items must comply with our product requirements, including Envelope Layout Standards for mail and addressing and layout requirements, as updated from time to time.

For full details of our requirements refer to our website at Bulk Mail Services and Address Certification, or the following brochures available on our website, or by calling our Customer Care Centre on 0800 501 501:

- Domestic Bulk Mail Envelope Layout Standards (ADV391)
- Address and Layout Guide (ADV356)

We recommend that you have the design of your envelope assessed prior to printing by emailing elsapprovals@nzpost.co.nz

We will check your mail at a NZ Post Mail Service Centre to see if it meets the product requirements. If your mail does not meet these requirements, it will be uprated to the applicable product and you will be charged based on the applicable product for which your lodgement meets the specifications.

PermitPost impression

Each VolumeMail mail piece must have an approved PermitPost impression, which includes:

- an approved NZ Post standard PermitPost impression
- your allocated PermitPost number, and
- the words 'New Zealand'

The PermitPost impression must be on the top right-hand corner of the envelope (or, if you are using a re-usable envelope, top centre) on the same side as the delivery address. For further information, refer to the Envelope Layout Standards (ADV391) and the PermitPost section of this Postal Users' Guide. Only standard PermitPost impressions are acceptable for VolumeMail.

Delivery address

All items must have a valid NZ Post delivery address, including the correct NZ Post postcode for the delivery address type, being PO Box, Private Bag, Rural or Street address, and matching the appropriate suburb/town.

We will monitor your returned mail volumes. We reserve the right to charge you full postage rates for any returned mail.

Address Accuracy Percentage (AAP)

AAP is used for pricing based on the overall address quality of the bulk mail lodgement. AAP is calculated on addresses in the Lodgement Data File with Valid Postcodes only, to determine the applicable Pricing Tier (addresses with Invalid Postcodes will be priced separately).

AAP Pricing Tier	AAP
Tier 1	95%+
Tier 2	90% – 94.99%
Tier 3	80% – 89.99%
Tier 4	<80% / No AAP

More information about AAP standards can be found on our website at Address Accuracy Percentage.

Return address

All items must have a valid NZ Post return address, including the correct NZ Post postcode.

The return address can be located anywhere on the mail piece, as long as it is distinguishable from the delivery address.

We recommend that you have the placement and layout of your return address assessed prior to printing by emailing elsapprovals@nzpost.co.nz For more information on correct addressing standards, please refer to the Address and Layout Guide (ADV356).

Labelling

All trays, roll cages and ULDs must have a NZ Post tray label attached. Requirements differ for mail lodged by mailhouses and businesses directly.

For mail lodged by mailhouses, the label must include:

- the postcode range that applies to the items within the tray (that is, the first and last postcode numbers)
- the lodgement day crossed to identify when your mail was lodged with NZ Post
- a reference code (for example, customer or mailing house reference)
- the green label for lodgements originating from the North Island and the purple label for lodgements originating from the South Island

For mail lodged directly by businesses, Bulk Mail labels are available to download and print, from our website at Bulk Mail Machine Lodgement Labels.

Statement of Posting

A Statement of Posting is the output from creating a new Mail Order in Lodgement Manager.

In the process of creating the mail order you select Product characteristics including: Product, Size, AAP and upload the Lodgement Data File, from which the Zonal breakdown is derived. Once the mail order has been submitted in Lodgement Manager, no subsequent changes will be permitted, and the Statement of Posting is to be printed and attached to the physical mail for lodgement. A Statement of Posting form must accompany your physical mail lodgement or your lodgement will not be able to be accepted.

NZ Post will calculate the total cost of your lodgement from the LDF and the VolumeMail code applied to each item across the AAP pricing tiers and Zones, including records with Invalid Postcodes (IPC).

The following table outlines the components that make up the VolumeMail codes:

Description	Completion by	Code Component
Product	Customer	VP
Size	Customer	M = Medium L = Large
Address Accuracy (AAP) Level	NZ Post	A1 (95%+) A2 (90%-94.99%) A3 (80%-89.99%), or A4 (below 80%)
Zonal delivery area	NZ Post	ZA ZB ZC ZD
Invalid postcode (IPC)	NZ Post	IPC

The following are examples of the product codes that will appear in your Mail Order Lodgement Declaration and your subsequent Statement of Posting form:

Details	VolumeMail code
E.g.	VPMA1ZA
Size = Medium	VPMA1ZB
A1 = 95%+ accuracy	VPMA1ZC
ZA = Zone A	VPMA1ZD
	VPMA1IPC
E.g.	VPLA4ZA
Size = Large	VPLA4ZB
A4 = Below 80% accuracy	VPLA4ZC
ZD = Zone D	VPLA4ZD
	VPLA4IPC

Note: The zonal distribution breakdown, including invalid items, will be available for viewing in Lodgement Manager during completion of the manifesting process. Any invalid items can be corrected and re-uploaded before submitting and the corrected items will be charged at their correct zonal prices. Changes made to your LDF records must also be made to your physical mail to ensure the records match. If the LDF and physical mail lodged do not match, the lodgement will be updated to IPC rates or returned to you.

Zonal Pricing

Zonal Pricing is a pricing structure that charges different prices for mail deliveries to different areas. Every New Zealand postcode containing delivery points has been allocated one of four "Zones": Zone A, Zone B, Zone C, and Zone D. Each of these zones has a different price.

In addition to the above four Zones, a higher price (IPC) will be charged for any items with incorrect or missing postcodes, including:

- Missing postcode
- A postcode that doesn't exist – e.g. invalid number, international postcode
- Incorrect postcode match to destination type, e.g. Box Lobby, Rural delivery, urban location
- Incorrect postcode match for City OR Suburb (needs to match one of the two)

The uprated pricing is a separate tier called Invalid postcode (IPC). The IPC pricing is the same across all AAP tiers for the relative item size.

The IPC component of the VolumeMail code will be generated by NZ Post at time of processing and will be applied to all items that do not have a valid postcode.

The full list of postcodes is available to download and print from our website at Bulk Mail Zonal Pricing.

We may change the Zonal Pricing postcode allocations from time to time. Any change of this type will be notified to you with at least 60 days' notice.

Compliance requirements

To be eligible for VolumeMail product usage, lodgements must meet the specified requirements set out here.

Non-compliance may result in the entire lodgement being returned to you at your cost or being charged at a higher price depending on the mail service your lodgement complies with.

To ensure non-compliance is kept at a minimum we encourage you to contact elsapprovals@nzpost.co.nz or call our Customer Care Centre on 0800 501 501 for any mail pieces that you have questions on or for approval.

Prohibited and Restricted items

Special conditions apply to Prohibited and Restricted items. Prohibited and Restricted items include (but are not limited to) dangerous, perishable, fragile and high value items. Refer to section 1 of this Postal Users' Guide for full details.

Compensation terms and conditions

For full information about our Compensation terms and conditions, refer to section 2 of this Postal Users' Guide.

- Address and layout guide (ADV356)
- Domestic Bulk Mail rate card (ADV393)

We recommend that you have the design of your envelope assessed prior to printing by emailing elsapprovals@nzpost.co.nz

We will check your mail at a NZ Post Mail Service Centre to see if it meets the product requirements. If your mail does not meet these requirements, it will be uprated to the applicable product and you will be charged based on the applicable product for which your lodgement meets the specifications.

PermitPost impression

Each FlexiMail mail piece must have an approved PermitPost impression, which includes:

- an approved NZ Post standard PermitPost impression
- your allocated PermitPost number, and
- the words 'New Zealand'

The PermitPost impression must be on the top right-hand corner of the envelope (or, if you are using a re-usable envelope, top centre) on the same side as the delivery address. For further information, refer to the Envelope Layout Standards (ADV391) and the PermitPost section of this Postal Users' Guide. Only standard PermitPost impressions are acceptable for FlexiMail.

Selected NZ Post stores*

Items will be processed the following working day.

* NZ Post reserves the right not to accept Bulk Mail lodgements at some NZ Post stores (for example, where this is not feasible due to space limitations).

Lodgement requirements

The following requirements relate to your physical mail lodged with NZ Post:

Lodgement Data File

For your Bulk Mail lodgements to be assessed, a Lodgement Data File (LDF) in a NZ Post approved format must be included with the lodgement manifest.

Please see Zonal Pricing Lodgement Data File Layout Example for more information on Lodgement Data File requirements of your lodgement.

Sorting

All items must be sorted in one of the following orders to be eligible for AAP Tier 1, 2, 3 or 4 pricing:

- ascending postcode order, or
- sortplan order

Items must be placed in letter trays or cross strapped bundled so that the delivery address and PermitPost impression are facing the front of the tray.

No more than one type of product can be lodged in one tray. For example, FlexiMail items cannot be included in the same tray as VolumeMail items.

Letter trays, containers, roll cages and Unit Loading Devices (ULDs)

Letter trays are available from your nearest NZ Post Mail Service Centre. Letter trays must not weigh more than 12kg. If a tray weighs more than this, mail must be split into two or more trays. If you use more than 40 trays per lodgement, a container service is available.

Bundles must be able to be carried with one hand without the contents becoming separated. Bundles must not weigh more than 12kg.

The maximum bundle height allowable for FlexiMail is 150mm.

If you are posting large numbers of bundles, they can be lodged directly into roll cages or Unit Loading Devices (ULDs).

For mail lodged directly by businesses, Bulk Mail labels are available to download and print, from our website at Bulk Mail Machine Lodgement Labels.

Statement of Posting

A Statement of Posting is the output from creating a new Mail Order in Lodgement Manager. In the process of creating the mail order you select Product characteristics including: Product, Size, AAP and upload the Lodgement Data File, from which the Zonal breakdown is derived. Once the mail order has been submitted in Lodgement Manager, no subsequent changes will be permitted, and the Statement of Posting is to be printed and attached to the physical mail for lodgement. A Statement of Posting form must accompany your physical mail lodgement or your lodgement will not be able to be accepted.

NZ Post will calculate the total cost of your lodgement from the LDF and the FlexiMail code applied to each item across the AAP pricing tiers and Zones, including records with Invalid Postcodes (IPC).

The following table outlines the components that make up the FlexiMail codes:

Description	Completion by	Code Component

E.g.	GFLA4ZA
Size = Large	GFLA4ZB
A4 = Below 80% accuracy	GFLA4ZC
ZD = Zone D	GFLA4ZD
	GFLA4IPC

Note: The zonal distribution breakdown, including invalid items, will be available for viewing in Lodgement Manager during completion of the manifesting process. Any invalid items can be corrected and re-uploaded before submitting and the corrected items will be charged at their correct zonal prices. Changes made to your LDF records must also be made to your physical mail to ensure the records match. If the LDF and physical mail lodged do not match, the lodgement will be uprated to IPC rates or returned to you.

Zonal Pricing

Zonal Pricing is a pricing structure that charges different prices for mail deliveries to different areas. Every New Zealand postcode containing delivery points has been allocated one of four “Zones”: Zone A, Zone B, Zone C, and Zone D. Each of these zones has a different price.

In addition to the above four Zones, a higher price (IPC) will be charged for any items with incorrect or missing postcodes, including:

- Missing postcode
- A postcode that doesn't exist – e.g. invalid number, international postcode
- Incorrect postcode match to destination type, e.g. Box Lobby, Rural delivery, urban location
- Incorrect postcode match for City OR Suburb (needs to match one of the two)

The uprated pricing is a separate tier called Invalid postcode (IPC). The IPC pricing is the same across all AAP tiers for the relative item size.

The IPC component of the FlexiMail code will be generated by NZ Post at time of processing and will be applied to all items that do not have a valid postcode.

The full list of postcodes is available to download and print from our website at Bulk Mail Zonal Pricing.

We may change the Zonal Pricing postcode allocations from time to time. Any change of this type will be notified to you with at least 60 days' notice.

Compliance requirements

To be eligible for FlexiMail product usage, lodgements must meet the specified requirements set out here.

Non-compliance may result in the entire lodgement being returned to you at your cost or being charged at a higher price depending on the mail service your lodgement complies with.

To ensure non-compliance is kept at a minimum, we encourage you to contact elsapprovals@nzpost.co.nz or call our Customer Care Centre on 0800 501 501 for any mail pieces that you have questions on or for approval.

Publication Mail Terms and Conditions

Summary of key requirements

For sending magazines, newsletters and catalogues (and attached samples) within New Zealand. Magazines and newsletters are publications with fixed titles that are published regularly, i.e. at least twice a year. Catalogues are publications that market products and services directly to prospective buyers and are published at least twice a year. Sales flyers or circulars do not meet the definition of a catalogue under Publication Mail, even if published regularly.

Publication Mail cannot be used for delivering surveys, handbooks, manuals, directories or annual reports.

To use Publication Mail you must:

- be a NZ Post Account customer
- have a PermitPost number
- comply with the Publication Mail Terms and Conditions, including the relevant envelope layout standards and addressing layout standards
- submit a completed Statement of Posting with your lodgement using a Lodgement Manager Manifest.
- meet all lodgement requirements, including a Lodgement Data File (LDF) in a NZ Post approved format.

Non-compliance with the requirements set out below may result in the entire lodgement being returned to you at your cost or being charged at a higher price, as set out in further detail below.

Dimensions and weight restrictions

Publication Mail

Size	Minimum weight	Maximum weight	Minimum dimensions (height x length)	Maximum dimensions* (height x length)	Minimum thickness	Maximum thickness
Oversize	20g	1kg	160mm x 240mm	240mm x 360mm	1.0mm	20mm

Bulk Mail Samples

Size	Minimum weight	Maximum weight	Minimum dimensions (height x length)	Maximum dimensions* (height x length)	Minimum thickness	Maximum thickness
Oversize	20g	1kg	160mm x 240mm	240mm x 360mm	1.0mm	32mm

*Maximum of 360mm includes plastic overhang when flow-wrapping.

Each mail item within a lodgement must:

- Be the same size and shape, and within the minimum and maximum weight restriction
- Contain the same PermitPost number and return address

Please note that:

- The weight of mail items within a lodgement can vary providing they fall within the minimum and maximum range
- The imagery and text printed on items may vary, provided that the requirements as to size, shape, weight, PermitPost number and return address are met

Samples

Publication Mail is designed to accommodate samples in addition to the publication.

It is the responsibility of the sender to ensure the sample is securely packaged so that it cannot be damaged or become separated in the normal process of handling and delivering this mail item. The sample must be consistent in thickness and contain no irregular items including but not limited to pens or refrigerator magnets.

In addition, there are a number of items that NZ Post is unable to handle or deliver. These are specified in the Prohibited and Restricted items section of this Postal Users' Guide (section 1).

If you are in doubt about whether a proposed mailing with a sample will be acceptable, please contact your Account Manager or the Customer Care Centre on 0800 501 501 or elsapprovals@nzpost.co.nz for confirmation.

Address Accuracy Percentage (AAP)

AAP is used for pricing based on the overall address quality of the bulk mail lodgement. AAP is calculated on addresses in the Lodgement Data File with Valid Postcodes only, to determine the applicable Pricing Tier (addresses with Invalid Postcodes will be priced separately).

AAP Pricing Tier	AAP
Tier 1	95%+
Tier 2	90% – 94.99%
Tier 3	80% – 89.99%
Tier 4	<80% / No AAP

More information about AAP standards can be found on our website at Address Accuracy Percentage

Return address

All items must have a valid NZ Post return address, including the correct NZ Post postcode. The return address can be located anywhere on the mail piece, as long as it is distinguishable from the delivery address.

We recommend that you have the placement and layout of your return address assessed prior to printing by emailing elsapprovals@nzpost.co.nz

For more information on correct addressing standards, please refer to the Address and Layout Guide (ADV356).

For example, Publication Mail items cannot be included in the same tray as VolumeMail items. Letter trays, containers, roll cages and Unit Loading Devices (ULDs) Letter trays are available from your nearest NZ Post Mail Service Centre. Letter trays must not weigh more than 12kg. If a tray weighs more than this, mail must be split into two or more trays. If you use more than 40 trays per lodgement, a container service is available. Bundles must be able to be carried with one hand without the contents becoming separated. Bundles must not weigh more than 12kg. The maximum bundle height allowable for Publication Mail and Publication Mail Samples is 150mm. If you are posting large numbers of bundles, they can be lodged directly into roll cages or Unit Loading Devices (ULDs). Labelling All trays, roll cages and ULDs must have a NZ Post tray label attached. Requirements differ for mail lodged by mailhouses and businesses directly. For mail lodged by mailhouses, the label must include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• the postcode range that applies to the items within the tray (that is, the first and last postcode numbers)• the lodgement day crossed to identify when your mail was lodged with NZ Post• a reference code (for example, customer or mailing house reference)• the green label for lodgements originating from the North Island and the purple label for lodgements originating from the South Island For mail lodged directly by businesses, Bulk Mail labels are available to download and print, from our website at Bulk Mail Machine Lodgement Labels

Statement of Posting

A Statement of Posting is the output from creating a new Mail Order in Lodgement Manager. In the process of creating the mail order the you select Product characteristics including: Product, Size, AAP and upload the Lodgement Data File, from which the pricing is derived. Once the mail order has been submitted in Lodgement Manager, no subsequent changes will be permitted, and the Statement of Posting is to be printed and attached to the physical mail for lodgement. A Statement of Posting form must accompany your physical mail lodgement or your lodgement will not be able to be accepted.

NZ Post will calculate the total cost of your lodgement from the LDF and the Publication Mail code applied to each item across the AAP pricing tiers and Zones, including records with Invalid Postcodes (IPC).

The following table outlines the components that make up the Publication Mail codes:

Description	Completion by	Code Component
Product	Customer	PP
Size	Customer	1 = 0 to 199g 2 = 200 to 299g 3 = 300 to 399g 4 = 400 to 699g 5 = 700 to 1000g
Address Accuracy (AAP) Level	NZ Post	A1 (95%+) A2 (90%-94.99%) A3 (80%-89.99%), or A4 (below 80%)
Zonal delivery area	NZ Post	ZA ZB ZC ZD
Invalid postcode (IPC)	NZ Post	IPC = Invalid postcode

The following are examples of the product codes that will appear in your Mail Order Lodgement Declaration and your subsequent Statement of Posting form:

Details	Publication Mail code
E.g.	PP1A1ZA
Size = 1	PP1A1ZB
A1 = 95%+ accuracy	PP1A1ZC
ZA = Zone A	PP1A1ZD
IPC = Invalid Postcode	PP1A1IPC
E.g.	PP2A4ZA
Size = 2	PP2A4ZB
A4 = Below 80% accuracy	PP2A4ZC
ZD = Zone D	PP2A4ZD

	Evening/Weekend Lodgement Fee An Evening/Weekend Lodgement Fee applies to Publication Mail lodgements outside standard lodgement timeframes. Evening/Weekend Lodgements are subject to prior approval with your local Mail Service Centre: Customer Acceptance contact. We reserve the right to refuse approval for an Evening/Weekend Lodgement at our discretion. Bulk Mail Sample Lodgement Fee A Bulk Mail Sample Lodgement Fee applies to samples accompanying Publication Mail items. A Bulk Mail Sample Lodgement Fee applies regardless of whether the lodgement is acceptable for processing at one of our Business Mail Centres. This is due to costs incurred for samples which are not able to be processed. If you are unsure whether a proposed mailing with a sample will be acceptable, please contact your Account Manager or the Customer Care Centre on 0800 501 501 or elsapprovals@nzpost.co.nz for confirmation.
Zonal Pricing	Zonal Pricing is a pricing structure that charges different prices for mail deliveries to different areas. Every New Zealand postcode containing delivery points has been allocated one of four "Zones": Zone A, Zone B, Zone C, and Zone D. Each of these zones has a different price. In addition to the above four Zones, a higher price (IPC) will be charged for any items with incorrect or missing postcodes, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Missing postcode• A postcode that doesn't exist – e.g. invalid number, international postcode• Incorrect postcode match to destination type, e.g. Box Lobby, Rural delivery, urban location• Incorrect postcode match for City OR Suburb (needs to match one of the two) The uprated pricing is a separate tier called Invalid postcode (IPC). The IPC pricing is the same across all AAP tiers for the relative item size. The IPC component of the VolumeMail code will be generated by NZ Post at time of processing and will be applied to all items that do not have a valid postcode. The full list of postcodes is available to download and print from our website at Bulk Mail Zonal Pricing. We may change the Zonal Pricing postcode allocations from time to time. Any change of this type will be notified to you with at least 60 days' notice.
Compliance requirements	To be eligible for Publication Mail or Publication Mail Samples product usage, lodgements must meet the specified requirements set out here. Non-compliance may result in the entire lodgement being returned to you at your cost or being charged at a higher price depending on the mail service your lodgement complies with. To ensure non-compliance is kept at a minimum we encourage you to contact elsapprovals@nzpost.co.nz or call our Customer Care Centre on 0800 501 501 for any mail pieces that you have questions on or for approval.

AdCard Terms and Conditions

Summary of key requirements

For sending bulk mailings of postcards within New Zealand.

Critical Requirements: A minimum of 85% of items must be printed in a single continuous delivery sequence. Postie delivery sequence is the order of addresses on each Postie's delivery route. An Address Accuracy Percentage (AAP) with a minimum of 80% is also required, or Lodgement Manager will not accept your lodgement.

In addition, to use AdCard you must:

- be a NZ Post Account customer
- have a PermitPost™ number
- comply with these AdCard Terms and Conditions, including (without limitation) the relevant envelope layout standards and addressing layout standards
- submit a completed Statement of Posting with your lodgement using a Lodgement Manager Manifest
- meet all lodgement requirements, including a Lodgement Data File (LDF) in a NZ Post approved format. Failure to submit a LDF will result in the lodgement being uprated
- Supply your addressing data, ideally with attached DPIDs, to your mailhouse or PreSort certified provider for sequencing
- Print your physical mail out in the specified sequence, including additional address elements as required
- Label your mail with the appropriate labels
- Use the latest version of the sequencing file or contact datasolutions@nzpost.co.nz for assistance
- Lodge each file so it is sequenced from the same NZ Post sequence file version
- Lodge on, or within two months after, the date of NZ Post sequence file used for sequencing
- Retain each sequenced address file for a period of 30 days from the date of lodgement and provide it on request for sequence quality audit purposes
- Adhere to the Envelope Layout Standards (ADV391) and Address and Layout Guide (ADV356)

Non-compliance with the requirements set out here may result in the entire lodgement being returned to you at your cost or being charged at a higher price, as set out in further detail here.

Dimensions and weight restrictions

Size	Maximum dimensions (height x length)	Minimum dimensions (height x length)	Minimum weight	Maximum weight	Minimum thickness	Maximum thickness
Medium	130mm x 240mm	88mm x 138mm	3g	25g	0.3mm	1mm
Large	165mm x 240mm	130mm x 185mm	3g	35g	0.3mm	1mm

Each mail item within a lodgement must:

- Be the same size and shape, and within the minimum and maximum weight restriction
- Contain the same PermitPost number and return address

Please note that:

- Medium and Large mail items cannot be mixed in the same lodgement
- The weight of mail items within a lodgement can vary providing they fall within the minimum and maximum range
- The imagery and text printed on items may vary, provided that the requirements as to size, shape, weight, PermitPost number and return address are met

Delivery targets

Nationwide up to 3 working days.

Delivery targets are a guide only and we do not guarantee that your item will reach its destination within the delivery target. Delivery to and from rural or remote areas may take longer.

Minimum volume

300 items in a lodgement

The minimum volume must be met by each mailing customer.

Mail from groups of customers cannot be consolidated to achieve AdCard pricing.

Each of the mail items within the lodgement must meet the dimensions and weight restrictions.

PermitPost number

To use AdCard you must have a PermitPost number.

For more details about PermitPost, including how to apply for a PermitPost number, refer to:

- The PermitPost information on our website at nzpost.co.nz/permitpost
- The PermitPost section of this Postal Users' Guide

Product requirements

All items must comply with our product requirement, including Envelope Layout Standards for mail and addressing and layout requirements, as updated from time to time.

For full details of our requirements refer to our website at Bulk Mail Services and Address Certification or the following brochures, which are available on our website nzpost.co.nz or by calling our Customer Care Centre on 0800 501 501:

- Address and Layout Guide (ADV356)
- Domestic Bulk Mail Envelope Layout Standards (ADV391)
- Domestic Bulk Mail Rate Card (ADV393)

We recommend that you have the design of your item assessed prior to printing by emailing elsapprovals@nzpost.co.nz

We will check your mail at a NZ Post Mail Service Centre to see if it meets the product requirements. If your mail does not meet these requirements, it will be updated to the applicable product and you will be charged based on the applicable product for which your lodgement meets the specifications.

PermitPost impression

Each AdCard mail piece must have an approved PermitPost impression, which includes:

- your allocated PermitPost number, and
- the words 'New Zealand'

The PermitPost impression must be clearly visible and be located on the top right corner of the mail item. For further information, refer to the Envelope Layout Standards (ADV391) and the PermitPost section of this Postal Users' Guide.

Non-identical mail from groups of customers can be consolidated provided the consolidated file is re-sequenced to provide one continuously sequenced file and every lodgement must be billed to a single customer account. The dimensions, weight and thickness of each item may vary but must be within the specified limits for the selected size e.g. Medium or Large.

Delivery address

All items must have a valid NZ Post delivery address, including the correct NZ Post postcode for the delivery address type, being PO Box, Private Bag, Rural or Street address, and matching the appropriate suburb/town. Please refer to the Envelope Layout Standards (ADV391) and Address and Layout Guide (ADV356).

We will monitor your returned mail volumes. We reserve the right to charge you full postage rates for any returned mail. Please note that there is likely to be a higher rate of return for addresses unable to be matched to the Postal Address File (PAF).

Address Accuracy Percentage (AAP)

AAP is used for pricing based on the overall address quality of the bulk mail lodgement. The AAP is calculated on addresses in the Lodgement Data File with Valid Postcodes only, to determine the applicable Pricing Tier (addresses with Invalid Postcodes will be priced separately).

AAP Pricing Tier	AAP
Tier 1	95%+
Tier 2	90% – 94.99%
Tier 3	80% – 89.99%

More information about AAP can be found on our website at Address Accuracy Percentage.

Return address

All items must have a valid NZ Post return address, including the correct NZ Post postcode.

The return address can be located anywhere on the mail piece, as long as it is distinguishable from the delivery address.

We recommend that you have the placement and layout of your return address assessed prior to printing by emailing elsapprovals@nzpost.co.nz

For more information on correct addressing standards, please refer to the Envelope Layout Standards (ADV391) and Address and Layout Guide (ADV356).

Mail Printing

The sequenced portion of the lodgement must be printed in the postie run sequence specified in the NZ Post sequence file version.

Each sequenced mail item must have two codes printed in the address block, as follows:

- Round Number – comprising:
 - 3 characters (branch abbreviation)
 - 3 numbers (round abbreviation)
 - minimum 15 spaces
 - 1 number (NZ Post line area) (e.g. NMS0056)
- Postcode – comprising 4 digits (e.g. 6035)

The codes can be printed in the same font as the address, however the Round Number must be 'address line 1', left justified and 12-point font.

Below is an example:

NMS123 4

Mr A B Example
 11 Example Street
 Ngaio
 Wellington 6035

In circumstances where mail items are damaged in the production process, these items will need to be reprinted and trayed/bundled separately, with a standard red and white mixed postcode label and in such circumstances NZ Post reserves the right to uprate the entire lodgement.

Items will be processed the following working day.

* NZ Post reserves the right not to accept Bulk Mail lodgements at some NZ Post stores (for example, where this is not feasible due to space limitations).

Lodgement requirements

The following requirements relate to your physical mail lodged with NZ Post:

Lodgement Data File

For your Bulk Mail lodgements to be assessed, a Lodgement Data File (LDF) in a NZ Post approved format must be included with the lodgement manifest.

Please see Zonal Pricing Lodgement Data File Layout Example for more information on Lodgement Data File requirements of your lodgement.

Sorting

All items must be sorted in ascending postcode order to be eligible for AAP Tier 1, 2 or 3 pricing. Items must be placed in letter trays with the delivery address and PermitPost impression facing the same way, towards the front of the tray (where the label is located).

No more than one type of product can be lodged in one tray. For example, AdCard items cannot be included in the same tray as Publication Mail items.

Within each sequenced mail tray, mail items must be sequenced in accordance with the Mail Printing section of this specification.

Within each un-sequenced mail tray, the mail items must be sequenced in ascending postcode order where the postcode is known. Un-sequenced items without postcodes can be included but must be grouped after the postcode ordered items.

Letter trays, containers, roll cages and Unit Loading Devices (ULDs)

Letter trays are available from your nearest NZ Post Mail Service Centre. Letter trays must not weigh more than 12kg. If a tray weighs more than this, mail must be split into two or more trays. If you use more than 40 trays per lodgement, a container service is available.

If you are posting large numbers of bundles, they can be lodged directly into roll cages or Unit Loading Devices (ULDs).

Labelling

All trays, roll cages and ULDs must have a NZ Post tray label attached. Sequenced and un-sequenced items must be presented in separate trays with separate labelling requirements. For sequenced items the label must include:

- the word “ROUND” either printed, stamped or hand-written
- the Round Number range that applies to items within the tray (that is, the first and last Round Numbers). Round Numbers must be printed in the fields on standard tray labels usually used for Postcode range
- the lodgement day crossed to identify when mail was lodged with NZ Post
- a reference code (for example, customer or mailing house reference)
- the green label for lodgements originating from the North Island and the purple label for lodgements originating from the South Island

For un-sequenced items the label must include:

- the word “POSTCODE” either printed, stamped or hand-written
- the postcode range that applies to items within the tray (that is, the first and last postcode numbers)
- the lodgement day crossed to identify when mail was lodged with NZ Post
- a reference code (for example, customer or mailing house reference)
- the red label Letter trays are available from your nearest NZ Post Mail Service Centre

For mail lodged directly by businesses, Bulk Mail labels are available to download and print, from our website at Bulk Mail Machine Lodgement Labels.

Statement of Posting

A Statement of Posting is the output from creating a new Mail Order in Lodgement Manager. In the process of creating the mail order you select Product characteristics including: Product, Size, APP and upload the Lodgement Data File, from which the Zonal breakdown is derived. Once the mail order has been submitted in Lodgement Manager, no subsequent changes will be permitted, and the Statement of Posting is to be printed and attached to the physical mail for lodgement. A Statement of Posting form must accompany your physical mail lodgement or your lodgement will not be able to be accepted.

NZ Post will calculate the total cost of your lodgement from the LDF and the AdCard code applied to each item across the AAP pricing tiers and Zones, including records with Invalid Postcodes (IPC).

The following table outlines the components that make up the AdCard codes:

Description	Completion by	Code Component
Product	Customer	AC
Size	Customer	M = Medium L = Large
Address Accuracy (AAP) Level	NZ Post	- A1 (95%+) - A2 (90%-94.99%) - A3 (80%-89.99%), or - A4 (below 80%)
Zonal delivery area	NZ Post	ZA ZB ZC ZD
Invalid postcode (IPC)	NZ Post	IPC

The following are examples of the product codes that will appear in your Mail Order Lodgement Declaration and your subsequent Statement of Posting form:

Details	AdCard code
E.g.	ACMA1ZA
Size = Medium	ACMA1ZB
A1 = 95%+ accuracy	ACMA1ZC
ZA = Zone A	ACMA1ZD
	ACMA1IPC
E.g.	ACLA4ZA
Size = Large	ACLA4ZB
A4 = Below 80% accuracy	ACLA4ZC
ZD = Zone D	ACLA4ZD
	ACLA4IPC

Note: The Zonal distribution breakdown, including invalid items, will be available for viewing in Lodgement Manager during completion of the manifesting process. Any invalid items can be corrected and re-uploaded before submitting and the corrected items will be charged at their correct Zonal prices. Changes made to your LDF records must also be made to your physical mail to ensure the records match. If the LDF and physical mail lodged do not match, the lodgement will be uprated to IPC rates or returned to you.

Zonal Pricing

Zonal Pricing is a pricing structure that charges different prices for mail deliveries to different areas. Every New Zealand postcode containing delivery points has been allocated one of four “Zones”: Zone A, Zone B, Zone C, and Zone D. Each of these zones has a different price.

In addition to the above four Zones, a higher price (IPC) will be charged for any items with incorrect or missing postcodes, including:

- Missing postcode
- A postcode that doesn't exist – e.g. invalid number, international postcode
- Incorrect postcode match to destination type, e.g. Box Lobby, Rural delivery, urban location
- Incorrect postcode match for City OR Suburb (needs to match one of the two)

The uprated pricing is a separate tier called Invalid postcode (IPC). The IPC pricing is the same across all AAP tiers for the relative item size.

The IPC component of the AdCard code will be generated by NZ Post at time of processing and will be applied to all items that do not have a valid postcode.

The full list of postcodes is available to download and print from our website at Bulk Mail Zonal Pricing.

We may change the Zonal Pricing postcode allocations from time to time. Any change of this type will be notified to you with at least 60 days' notice.

Compliance requirements

To be eligible for AdCard product usage, lodgements must meet the specified requirements set out here.

Non-compliance may result in the entire lodgement being returned to you at your cost or being charged at a higher price depending on the mail service your lodgement complies with.

To ensure non-compliance is kept at a minimum, we encourage you to contact elsapprovals@nzpost.co.nz or call our Customer Care Centre 0800 501 501 for any mail pieces that you have questions on or for approval.

Prohibited and Restricted items

Special conditions apply to Prohibited and Restricted items. Prohibited and Restricted items include (but are not limited to) dangerous, perishable, fragile and high value items. Refer to section 1 of this Postal Users' Guide for full details.

Compensation terms and conditions

For full information about our Compensation terms and conditions, refer to section 2 of this Postal Users' Guide.

Other terms and conditions

Additional terms and conditions apply; refer to the Public Contract and sections 1 to 3 of this Postal Users' Guide.

Manual Handling Fee Terms and Conditions

Summary of key features	NZ Post recognises that from time to time customers need to send mail pieces that may not meet the machinability layout specifications for Publication Mail, FlexiMail and AdCard. The Manual Handling Fee (MHFEE) specification and associated fee was introduced in September 2019 to provide for this mailing option. The fee has been changed effective from 1 July 2023 to differentiate between: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Preapproved manual lodgements, and • Non preapproved lodgements The MHFEE is a per unit fee charged in addition to the base postage charge for the specific Bulk Mail product, size and sample fee (if applicable). E.g. PP1A1ZA + PPSAMFEE + MHFEE. If the mail piece contains an item (E.g. a pen or some type of retail sample), the packaged mail piece is exempt from meeting the following Envelope Layout Specifications, Clause 3.0.7 – Inserts and contents/samples and 3.12 – Samples, Onserts and Inserts, provided that the item does not exceed the maximum allowable dimensions below. The items may have an uneven thickness but must not have easily breakable or tearable packaging. Mail pieces that have been assessed and approved by NZ Post are able to access the manual handling fee process. Contact elsapprovals@nzpost.co.nz to get mail pieces assessed and approved at least one week prior to lodgement. Failure to do this may result in your lodgement being uprated to the Non-Preapproved MHFEE rate. Lodgements received that cannot be machine processed and have not been pre-approved for the MHFEE process may be approved, uprated to the Non-Preapproved MHFEE rate or rejected by NZ Post at our sole discretion. The delivery code should be printed above the address and the physical presentation of the lodgement should be in postie delivery sequence order.
FlexiMail	FlexiMail lodgements can access the Manual Handling Fee which is charged in addition to the base postage charge. E.g. GFMA1ZA + MHFEE. FlexiMail mail piece designs must be assessed and approved by NZ Post to access the manual handling fee. Bulk Mail Sample

Bulk Mail Sample lodgements can access the Manual Handling Fee which is charged in addition to the base Publication Mail postage and the Bulk Mail Sample Fee.

A Sample Lodgement Fee applies to samples accompanying Publication Mail mail pieces with a thickness of 20-32m, which are machinable.

Publication Mail Sample mail piece designs must be assessed and approved by NZ Post to access the manual handling fee. Contact elsapprovals@nzpost.co.nz to get mail pieces assessed and approved at least one week prior to lodgement. Failure to do this may result in your Publication Mail Sample lodgement being uprated to the Non-Preapproved MHFEE.

AdCard

AdCard lodgements can access the Manual Handling Fee which is charged in addition to the base Adcard postage. E.g. ACMA1ZA + MHFEE

NZ Post reserves the right to exempt any of the Envelope Layout Standards for AdCard where the manual handling fee is paid where the design of the AdCard is non-machinable due to shape and/or does not have a barcode clear zone. E.g. die-cut or odd shapes, etc.

AdCard designs must be assessed and approved by NZ Post to access the manual handling fee. Contact elsapprovals@nzpost.co.nz to get mail pieces assessed and approved at least one week prior to lodgement. Failure to do this may result in your AdCard lodgement being uprated to the Non-Preapproved MHFEE.

A MHFEE may be applied if the mail piece does not comply with the Domestic Bulk Mail Envelope Layout Standards (ADV391), providing that they do not exceed the maximum allowable dimensions as per the AdCard Terms and Conditions section in this Postal Users' Guide.

A minimum of 85% of items must be printed in a single continuous delivery sequence. Postie delivery sequence is the order of addresses on each Postie's delivery route. If your lodgement does not meet these requirements New Zealand Post reserves the right to uprate your entire lodgement to the next applicable product.

Each sequenced mail item must have two codes printed in the address block, as follows:

- Round Number – comprising:
 - 3 characters (branch abbreviation)
 - 3 numbers (round abbreviation)
 - minimum 15 spaces
 - 1 number (NZ Post line area) (e.g. NMS123 4)
- Postcode - comprising 4 digits (e.g. 6035)

The codes can be printed in the same font as the address, however the Round Number must be 'address line 1', left justified and 12-point font.

Below is an example:

Manual Handling Fee Terms and Conditions

Product code details

A Statement of Posting form must accompany your mail lodgement or your lodgement will not be able to be processed. Once the lodgement form has been submitted, no subsequent changes will be permitted.

In addition to the product code for your standard lodgement, E.g. Publication Mail code, you must also use the following codes on all Statement of Posting forms when a sample fee, evening fee or Manual Handling Fee applies:

Product Code	Product Description	Lodgement Time
MHFEEAPPD	Manual Handling Fee – Preapproved Lodgement (All sizes up to Max 360mm x 240mm)	Standard
MHFEEENON	Manual Handling Fee – Non-Preapproved Lodgement (All sizes up to Max 360mm x 240mm)	Standard

Lodgement requirements

When manifesting using Lodgement Manager, add the text 'Manual Handling Fee applies' into 'Invoice Line Ref 2' of the Statement of Posting.

Lodgements should be presented in postie delivery sequence order consistent with Adcard presentation requirements.

Each mail item within a lodgement type must:

- Be the same size and shape, and within the minimum and maximum weight restriction.
- Contain the same PermitPost number and return address.

Armed Forces Concession

Summary of key features

The Armed Forces Concession is a pricing concession for items posted to or from New Zealand service personnel serving at designated Missions abroad or at sea. It also applies to overseas service personnel serving with the armed forces in New Zealand.

Letters and parcels sent through the Armed Forces Concession are subsidised. Instead of being charged at the international rate, postage is charged at:

- the domestic Standard Post rate for letters
- a special Armed Forces Concession rate for parcels (up to a 10kg weight limit).

Police serving overseas can also access these concession rates, subject to guidelines set by New Zealand Police.

Product requirements

Outbound mail – letters and parcels

- Destinations are limited to those that have been agreed between the Armed Forces and NZ Post, and are subject to change
- Letters must be marked as Forces Concession. All items posted must carry the individual's name, rank, regimental number and name of Operation
- Items are to be presented at a NZ Post store or collected from a military base.

General

All items must have:

- the address written in English in the following format:

“Forces Concession”
Service number/rank/and name
OP “Operation name”
Address 1 (PO Box/street number)
Address 2 (city/postal code)
Address 3 (country)
C/- INTERNATIONAL MAIL CENTRE
AUCKLAND

- a NZ Post return address
- an Economy indicator for international services on the front, top left hand corner
- correctly completed Customs documentation (see overleaf).

Items posted from New Zealand must be addressed to a military base, naval ship or a United Nations organisation.

Inbound mail – letters and parcels

Items posted to New Zealand must have a valid New Zealand delivery address. For mail destined for military bases, naval ships or United Nations organisations, the valid delivery address is usually a PO Box or Private Bag.

PO Box delivery	PO Box delivery is only available in certain destinations. These destinations are available on our website at nzpost.co.nz/worldzones
Customs documentation	You must include a white consignment note (CN 300) or attach an electronic label generated via a NZ Post electronic lodgement tool. If the items are part of a commercial transaction, a copy of the commercial invoice or an Export Invoice (NCPIO25) must be provided. For parcels valued over NZ$1,000 New Zealand Customs requires an Export Entry to be completed, which NZ Post can complete on your behalf for an additional fee. For more information contact our Customs Clearance Broker on 0800 SEND IT (0800 736 348). You are responsible for ensuring that the information you declare is accurate. In addition to its use for Customs clearance, this information may also be used to determine the safe carriage of your parcel, and you will be liable for any damages incurred from a misstatement or omission of information.
Customs requirements	Customs regulations and other border requirements vary from country to country, from time to time, and are outside our control. You are responsible for complying with Customs requirements, completing all Customs documentation and checking whether Customs duties or other charges are payable on your item. Where possible, we will do our best to provide you with information on these regulations and requirements, but we cannot guarantee the accuracy of this information. Customers are required to provide detailed and accurate descriptions of the items they intend to send overseas. Some countries require customers to provide the corresponding 6-digit HS tariff code to the items they intend to send. You can find the latest list of countries that require a HS Tariff Code here: nzpost.co.nz/ead Failure to complete documentation correctly may result in items being returned. Where the customer fails to provide a Tariff Code, NZ Post will endeavour to supply one, but accepts no liability for incorrect or inadequate declaration of goods or any consequences as a result. The person receiving the item must pay all Customs duties, sales taxes and other regulatory charges. If the receiver does not pay these charges or the item is undeliverable you may be responsible for paying these charges.
Additional documents	Additional documents (for example certificate of origin, health certificate, doctor's prescription) may be required so that an item can be exported from New Zealand or enter another country. You are responsible for finding out what is required and including it with your item.
Lodgement options	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Selected NZ Post stores• NZ Post Mail Service Centres• Pickup by courier. Items should not be lodged in street posting boxes, parcel drop boxes or over the counter at other NZ Post stores as barcode scanning (and therefore tracking) will not be performed.
Country specific restrictions and requirements	Individual countries may place additional restrictions on the carriage or import of items. You are responsible for checking whether restrictions apply to your item. Where possible, we have included information on restrictions for individual countries on our website, nzpost.co.nz but we cannot guarantee the accuracy of this information.
Required postage	Required postage is GST zero-rated. However, if you want to use stamps as the payment method for your item, GST will be added to the required postage. The minimum chargeable weight for a Courier item is 500g. Rolls and tubes are charged as parcels. Documents are charged at fixed weight breaks up to 1kg. Courier items (documents weighing over 1kg and merchandise) are charged by the greater of actual weight or volumetric weight* in 50g increments and rounded up to the next 50g, if purchased at NZ Post stores or by Digital Postal Meter (DPM) or by Print Postage Online. * To calculate volumetric weight, measure the item's height (m) x length (m) x thickness (m) and multiply this by 200, e.g. (0.5m x 0.4m x 0.3m) x 200 = 12kg.

Return of undeliverable items	Undeliverable items will be returned to you or destroyed according to the instructions you have given on the consignment note. If you want the item returned to you, you agree to pay us the full cost of returning the item (this may be equal to, or more than, the original cost of sending the item). Refer to the consignment note for further details.
Packaging	Packaging of your item is your responsibility. The sender of an item is responsible for any damage caused to another sender's item, or our or others' property if caused by inadequate packaging or because the contents were a Prohibited item.
Prohibited and Restricted items	Special conditions apply to Prohibited and Restricted items. Prohibited and Restricted items include (but are not limited to) dangerous, perishable, fragile and high value items. Refer to section 1 of this Postal Users' Guide for full details.

Reply Coupon International Terms and Conditions

Summary of key features

A Reply Coupon International is a coupon that can be exchanged for one or more postage stamps representing the minimum postage for an unregistered priority airmail letter of up to 20g sent to another Universal Postal Union member country.

NZ Post does not sell these coupons but will redeem them. Reply Coupon International purchased overseas can be exchanged at selected NZ Post stores for a postage stamp valued at the maximum overseas airmail Economy rate for a medium sized letter.

Our Economy Letters terms and conditions (see page 58 of this Postal Users' Guide) will apply to the service.

Reply Coupons International carry an expiry date, after which time they cannot be exchanged.

A new NZ Post brand

New Zealand Post, CourierPost and Pace became one – NZ Post.

There are no operational or organisational changes as a result of our move to a single brand.

We renamed some of our products to simplify our offering and better describe the services our customers can access, but the services themselves are unchanged.
